

ENNOSTAR Inc. Rules for the Procedures of the Shareholders' Meeting

- Article 1: Unless otherwise provided in laws or regulations, a Shareholders' meeting shall be conducted in compliance with the Rules of Procedure.
- Article 2: Shareholders or their proxies attending the shareholders' meeting (the "Meeting") shall submit the attendance card for the purpose of signing in. The number of shares represented by shareholders or their proxies attending the Meeting shall be calculated in accordance with the attendance cards submitted by the shareholders or their proxies plus the number of shares exercised by correspondence or electronic means.
- Article 3: The attendance of the meeting and voting in the meeting shall be based on the calculation of shares.
- Article 4: The meeting shall be held at the office of the Company, or any other appropriate place that is convenient for the shareholders and suitable for the meeting to be held. The starting time of the meeting shall not be earlier than 9 am or later than 3 pm. The restrictions on the place of the meeting shall not apply when this Corporation convenes a virtual shareholders' meeting.
- Article5: If the meeting is convened by the Board of Directors (the "BOD"), the Chairman of the BOD shall be the chairman of the meeting. If Chairman is on leave, or cannot execute his or her authority for any reason, the Vice Chairman shall preside over the meeting. If there is no Vice Chairman or the Vice Chairman is also on leave, or cannot execute his or her authority for any reason, Chairman shall designate one of the Managing Directors to act on behalf of him or her. If there is no Managing Director, Chairman shall designate one of the directors to preside over the meeting. If Chairman does not designate any proxy to preside over the meeting on his or her behalf, the Managing Directors or directors shall elect one from among themselves to preside over the meeting.
- If the meeting is convened by any other person entitled to convene the meeting, not by the BOD, such person shall preside over the meeting.
- Article 6: The Company may designate its lawyers, CPAs or relevant parties to attend the meeting.
- Article 7: The chairman may engage disciplinary officers (or security personnel) to assist on keeping the order of the meeting. Such disciplinary officers (or security personnel) shall wear a badge marked "Disciplinary Officers".
- Article 8: Any participants of the Shareholders' meeting shall not bring items which might endanger human life, health, liberty or property.

Article 9: The chairman may engage police officers to assist on keeping the order of the meeting.

Article 10: The whole proceedings of the meeting shall be videotaped or tape-recorded. The preceding tapes shall be preserved for at least one year. Where a shareholders meeting is held by virtual meeting, this Company shall keep records of shareholder registration, sign-in, check-in, questions raised, votes cast and results of votes counted by this Company, and continuously audio and video record, without interruption, the proceedings of the virtual meeting from beginning to end. The information and audio and video recording shall be properly kept by this Company during the entirety of its existence, and copies of the audio and video recording shall be provided to and kept by the party appointed to handle matters of the virtual meeting.

Article 11: The chairman shall call the meeting according to meeting schedule. If the number of shares represented by the shareholders present at the meeting has not yet reached more than 50% of the total issued and outstanding shares of the Company, the chairman may postpone the meeting. The postponements shall be limited to twice at most and the meeting may not be postponed longer than one hour in total. If the shares of the shareholders present at the meeting represent has not yet reached more than 50% but 1/3 of the total issued and outstanding shares or more after the meeting being postponed twice, a tentative resolution may be adopted in accordance with Paragraph 1 of Article 175 of the Company Act R.O.C.

Before the adjournment of the meeting, if the number of shares represented by the shareholders present at the meeting reaches more than 50% of the total issued and outstanding shares, the chairman may submit the adopted tentative resolution to the shareholders' meeting for approval in accordance with Article 174 of the Company Act R.O.C.

Article 12: If the meeting is convened by the BOD, the agenda of the meeting shall be set by the BOD. Relevant resolutions (including extraordinary motions and the amendment to the original motion) should be voted by poll. The meeting shall proceed in accordance with the agenda, unless otherwise resolved by the meeting.

The preceding paragraph shall apply to cases where the meeting is convened by a person, other than the BOD, entitled to convene such meeting.

Unless otherwise resolved by the meeting, the chairman shall not adjourn the meeting before all of discussion items (including extraordinary motions) have been resolved.

After the meeting is adjourned, shareholders shall not elect another chairman to continue the meeting on site or at another venue

Article 13: A meeting shall proceed in accordance with the agenda. In case the speech of any shareholder violates the above provision, the chairman may ask such shareholder to stop speaking.

Except for the discussion items listed in the agenda of the meeting, other motions or amendments or alternatives of the discussion items made by a shareholder at the meeting shall be seconded by other shareholders.

Article 14: A shareholder who intends to speak in the meeting shall fill out a speech note, specifying therein the summary of the speech, the shareholder's number (or the number of his or her certificate of attendance) and the name of the shareholder. The sequence of speeches by shareholders should be decided by the chairman. A shareholder who only submits his or her speech note but does not actually speak in the meeting shall be considered as not having given such a speech. If the content of the speech of the shareholder are different from the contents of the speech note, the contents of actual speech shall prevail.

When a shareholder is giving a speech, the other shareholders shall not interrupt the speech unless they have obtained the consent from the chairman and the said shareholder. For any such violations, the chairman shall stop the interruption immediately.

Article 15: Unless otherwise permitted by the chairman, each shareholder shall not speak more than twice for each discussion item. Each speech shall not take more than 5 minutes. In the case that any speech violates the foresaid provisions or exceeds the scope of the discussion item, the chairman may ask such shareholder to stop speaking.

Where a virtual shareholders meeting is convened, shareholders attending the virtual meeting online may raise questions in writing at the virtual meeting platform from the chair declaring the meeting open until the chair declaring the meeting adjourned. No more than two questions for the same proposal may be raised. Each question shall contain no more than 200 words.

Article 16: A legal entity that is appointed as a proxy to attend the meeting can only designate one representative to attend the meeting.

If a corporate shareholder designates two or more representatives to attend the meeting, only one representative can speak for each discussion item.

Article 17: After the speech of a shareholder, the chairman may respond by himself/herself or appoint an appropriate person to respond.

Article 18: The chairman may announce to end the discussion of any item and amendment or extraordinary motions proposed by the shareholders and submit them to be resolved when the chairman deems appropriate.

Article 19: Unless a majority of more than 50% is required by the Company Act R.O.C. or the Articles of Incorporation, a resolution of the meeting shall be adopted by at least 50% majority of votes represented by the shareholders present at the meeting.

The calculation of votes represented by the shareholders is based on the Articles in the Company Act R.O.C. or the Articles of Incorporation. A resolution of the meeting shall be adopted if it has been voted. If no objection is voiced after solicitation by the chairman, the resolution shall be deemed adopted and shall have the same effect as if it has been voted.

If there is an amendment or alternative for a discussion item, the chairman may combine the amendment or alternative into the original discussion item, and determine the sequence of voting for such discussion item. If any above item has been resolved, the others shall be deemed vetoed and no further voting is required.

Article 20: The voting method and procedures shall be announced by the chairman or a person designated by the chairman. The person(s) to monitor and the person(s) to count the ballots shall be appointed by the chairman. The person(s) monitoring the ballots shall be a shareholder(s). The result of voting shall be announced at the Meeting and recorded in the minutes of the Meeting.

Article 21: During the meeting, the chairman may set time for intermission at his or her discretion.

Article 22: In case of incident due to force majeure, the chairman may rule the meeting temporarily suspended and announce a time when, in view of the circumstances, the meeting will be resumed. If the meeting venue is no longer available for continued use and not all of the items on the meeting agenda have been addressed, the shareholders meeting may adopt a resolution to resume the meeting at another venue

Article 23: Any matters insufficiently address herein shall be subject to the Company Act R.O.C., laws and regulations or Articles of Incorporations concerned.

Article 24: The Rules of Procedure and any amendment thereto, shall be implemented after approval by the Shareholders' Meeting.

These Rules were enacted at the promoters' meeting on August 7, 2020.

The 1st amendment was made on May 24, 2024.
